

Parkland Use Licenses for Special Events

Are you planning an event on a public park site this season? Get the required Parkland Event License for no charge from your Community Recreation Coordinator, Anna Vesala.

Not sure if you need a Parkland Event License? Review the Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQs\) or submit your application form. A license would be required for any exception to City of Edmonton Parkland Bylaw 2202, such as:

- Group gatherings of 50 or more people
- A ceremony (wedding, church service)
- Commercial entertainment such as fireworks, horse-drawn wagon/sleigh rides, hot air balloons, commercial photography, gaming/raffles, amusement rides, bouncy
- Houses/inflatable play structures, petting zoo, outdoor music/stage, etc.
- Temporary food service and barbecue
- Liquor to serve or sell
- Portable toilets
- Model aircraft, rockets or other power-assisted flying models
- Temporary fire pits
- Putting up temporary signage on parkland
- Vehicles driving across or parking on parkland

Related event organizing resources:

- Book a sports field or ball diamond (fees apply)
- Event planning guide
- Block Party Tool Kit